2019 ACADEMIC HALL OF FAME NOMINATION FORM

The Upper Perkiomen School District will honor graduates for their academic excellence and post-secondary accomplishments. Our purpose is to identify role models that will encourage students of all ages to establish intrinsic academic expectations and standards of excellence.

To qualify for recognition, nominees should meet the following criteria:

- The nominee must have attended the Upper Perkiomen High School and graduated in the top 10% of their class.
- The nominee must be 35 years of age or older.
- The nominee must be a graduate of a four (4) year college program while maintaining a minimum GPA of 3.0.
- The nominee must have completed an advanced degree program or have received meritorious commendations for unique contributions to their vocation.
- The nominee has achieved the highest honors and/or international recognition for their accomplishments in their career.
- The accomplishment is so unique, special, and distinctive that any of the five previously mentioned criteria may be waived.
